Assignments

Case study assignments will

- ◁ In-depth research of an organisation by collecting information, and analysing and interpreting the information.
- ◁ Critical evaluation of the issues and their possible solutions.
- ◁ Application of initiative and originality in interpreting facts and relating to the underlying concepts and conclusions.
- ◁ Skill in writing and presentation of the findings.

Marking guidelines for assignment submissions will be provided at the same time as assignment details to assist with meeting assessable requirements. Submissions will be marked according to the marking guidelines provided.

Examinations

The mid-session test will be multiple choice questions and will be used to test the knowledge and understanding of students in the course concept and methods.

There will be a two-hour examination at the end of the semester. The examination will consist of multiple choice questions as well as descriptive questions.

You must be available for all tests and examinations. Final examinations for each course are held during the University examination periods: February for Summer Term, May for T1, August for T2, and November/December for T3.

Please visit myUNSW for Provisional Examination timetable publish dates.

For details of applying for Special Consideration and conditions for the award of supplementary assessment, please see the Special Consideration page.
