2.4 Relationship between course and program learning outcomes and assessments

3. Strategies and approaches to learning

3.1 Learning and teaching activities

Some of these requirements will be subject to change based on restrictions around clinic operations due to Covid safety procedures. Trainees will be informed of any such changes.

c. Professional Practice Meetings & Neuropsych Meetings

Attendance at weekly Professional Practice meetings is compulsory for all trainees from the start of the clinic observation period. These meetings are held throughout the year (i.e., not only in session weeks) and are considered to be the equivalent of work-place staff meetings. The meetings are held every Wednesday afternoon from 2pm – 3pm, although the time may be subject to change. In addition, trainees must also attend weekly Neuro/Psychometric meetings. These meetings are held on Wednesday, from 3pm – 4pm.

d. Intake Duty

Trainees are initially required to observe intake duty by the 6th year trainees in the Psychology Clinic and then from week 8 onwards perform 2.5 hours of intake duty per fortnight for the remainder of the clinic observation period. Intake duty includes responding to clinic enquires, performing intake interviews with potential clients and a range of administration duties. Compliance with the administrative procedures must be demonstrated to be satisfactory.

e. Logbooks

Throughout the program, trainees should be keeping a professional log of all relevant practical work completed from the start of their clinical placement at the UNSW Psychology Clinic (this does not include the observation period). The Professional Practice Logbook is held electronically via the UNSW InPlace system. Each logbook entry must be signed by your placement Supervisor as
